Bodas de sangre (Spanish Edition) Federico García Lorca

Con esta obra en tres actos, escrita en verso y en prosa en 1933, Lorca se propuso realizar una tragedia en el sentido clásico del término, un género que consideraba la verdadera raíz del teatro. La obra está ambientada en la tradicional Andalucía —que no obstante se convierte en manos de Lorca en un lugar tan mítico y universal como la Grecia clásica— donde una muchacha es obligada a casarse con un hombre al que no ama, puesto que está enamorada de otro joven, Leonardo, con quien mantuvo en el pasado una relación. Tras la boda se sucede un crescendo de imágenes que anticipan el desenlace fatal. Como en la tragedia clásica, los personajes están sometidos a un destino que se les revela cuando descubren que la realización de sus deseos o de su voluntad, lejos de liberarlos del mismo, tan solo parecen apresurarlo.
