His wings were made to protect her...but her heart is a no-fly zone.

The Shadow Slayers, Book 2.5

Abbey Sellers has to get out of town for a few days while trouble at home sorts itself out. A getaway to her family's mountain retreat with her friend, Jaxon, is exactly what she needs to relax and forget the wound etched into her stomach. Except since the scorching kiss they shared, spending time with Jaxon isn't as relaxing as it used to be.

Grounded warriors, secret tunnels, and an ancient Book of Death are only part of the problem. How does any woman with a pulse stay "just friends" with a man who spent a hundred years honing his lovemaking skills in a harem? Besides, he's immortal, and she has a shelf life. Jaxon, though, isn't listening—or taking no for an answer.

Jaxon Hex finally knows what he wants, and he won't let anything stop him from making Abbey his. Not even the devastating secret he's been hiding from her. With the coven out to assassinate the woman he loves, and Abbey dabbling in death magic that could get her killed, his own blood could be the one thing that heals her—or separates them for all eternity.

Warning: This book contains a warrior with needs, a woman with willpower issues and a cabin that's not what it seems. Watch out for no-holds-barred sex and a love that can move mountains...literally.
