Turn to Him. Trust Him. Rely on Him, and you will find that all you suffer will turn to your good. In the early hours of Christmas Eve, 2006, Gary Ceran's life took a tragic turn when the car carrying his family of six was struck by a drunk driver, killing his wife and two of his children. Following this shattering loss, the story of the Ceran family grabbed the hearts of the public—and Gary's frank forgiveness of the driver served as an incredible example of Christlike charity. In this inspirational personal account of the path from heartbreak to hope, Gary Ceran shares his realization that the Lord not only prepared him for the trials he would face but also healed him from his sorrow and blessed him abundantly. With incredible grace, He Can Heal reminds readers that it is through the gospel of Jesus Christ that tragedy can be overcome and hope can prevail.
