The Bible contains many illustrations of a godly, submitted, champion-level Christian life that can help us understand how we should live and behave no matter where we are. In second chapter of the New Testament book of 2 Timothy, the Apostle Paul describes four perspectives of knowing and doing God's will. These perspectives are of a warrior in battle with a treacherous enemy, a runner in a championship race, a farmer sowing seed and gathering a harvest, and a sacrifice on the altar picturing God's love for us. Each highlights specific principles God uses through "the rest of us" to fulfill His ultimate will while, at the same time, holding us accountable for our individual decisions.

The useful insights they provide will strengthen and encourage Christians of all ages as we seek God's will and grow to spiritual maturity. This short e-book takes a close look at the "Christian believer as sacrifice." Paul encourages us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God. The believer who places his or her all—everything—on the altar to God enters into a completely new realm of Christian experience where great rewards as blessings await.
