Try Looking Ahead Jason Rodriguez

A collection of stories featuring kids who don't have much, yet carve out life lessons and minor victories for themselves in their fantastical worlds

This YA collection of Twilight Zone–inspired short stories is a stunning assortment of modern-day twists on classic fables and science fiction standards that tell of a girl who can live in yesterday, a boy who can see through mountains, and a closet monster hunter. These impoverished youth don't have a lot, but make the most of what they have. As is always the case, every gift comes with responsibility, every vision comes with unwanted knowledge, and nothing is ever what it seems.
