La cuna del genio (Palabra hoy) (Spanish Edition) Gerardo Castillo

El arte y la ciencia siguen un rumbo hasta que algunas personas, adelantadas a su tiempo, lo cambian. Son los genios, unos personajes que nos atraen y que se encuentran envueltos en el misterio. Porque los genios... ¿nacen o se hacen?

Las personas geniales son siempre una referencia, su ejemplo es un poderoso estímulo por su curiosidad, su sano inconformismo y su superación personal. Son los primeros en responder a los retos de una sociedad en cambio, y se muestran rebeldes ante la resignación y la mediocridad.

Este libro es un interesante viaje por la vida y por la huella imborrable de grandes genios, tanto del mundo del arte (Miguel Ángel, Velázquez...), de la ciencia (Einstein, Newton...), como del mundo empresarial (Steve Jobs), intentando desvelar el misterio de unos hombres y mujeres hechos de barro como los demás mortales pero que destacaron por su talento, su creatividad y su trabajo duro.

Gerardo Castillo Ceballos, doctor en Pedagogía, es actualmente Profesor emérito de la Facultad de Educación y Psicología de la Universidad de Navarra. Es pionero en la formación de Orientadores Familiares en España y en otros países.

Sus principales temas de investigación siguen siendo el trabajo Intelectual, la creatividad, la adolescencia y la educación familiar.

En Palabra ha publicado Tus hijos adolescentes, Los estudios y la familia y Construir hoy el futuro de los hijos.
