Repentance takes change. Becoming takes change. Perfection takes change. Does the constant ebb and flow of change leave you feeling a little unsteady? From commonplace changes to the monumental moments that alter your path, it is impossible to move through this mortal existence unchanged—and in truth, our eternal progression depends on our willingness to be molded and refined by life's ups and downs. Perhaps the most important changes we can make are those that bring us closer to our Father in Heaven: a change of perspective, a change of desire, a change of heart. In A Mighty Change, distinguished gospel scholar Ed J. Pinegar turns to the scriptures for guidance on how to not only accept change but also celebrate it. In a thought-provoking discussion of six elements of change taken from King Benjamin's sermon, readers will come to know that when viewed through eternal gospel truths, change is a necessary catalyst in becoming true disciples of Christ.
