La Hija del Rey del País de los Elfos (Spanish Edition) Lord Dunsany

Edward John Moreton Drax Plunkett, XVIII Barón de Dunsany (24 de julio de 1878 - 25 de octubre de 1957), dramaturgo y novelista anglo-irlandés, conocido sobre todo por sus cuentos fantásticos. La hija del rey del país de los elfos (1924) aborda el tema de la mujer inmortal que, por amor a un hombre, abandona su condición y ha de aceptar la muerte, prefigurando así las elecciones análogas de Lúthien en El Silmarillion y Arwen en El Señor de los Anillos de J. R. R. Tolkien. Publicada en 1924, narra la fantástica historia de amor entre la princesa de los elfos, Lirazel, y el futuro rey de los hombres de Erl, Álveric, un amor que debe cruzar los abismos del tiempo, de la mortalidad y la inmortalidad. Escrita con ese estilo poético y evocador propio de Lord Dunsany, la novela ofrece al lector espadas mágicas creadas a partir de meteoritos, la caza de unicornios que cruzan la frontera entre los mundos, búsquedas de lo maravilloso por infinitas tierras baldías. Una de las obras maestras del género, y cuyo autor ha tenido gran influencia en Tolkien o Lovecraft.
