King Solomon's Wives: Sacrificed Holly McDowell

Dilara has always followed and enforced the rules of her clan. As a descendent of King Solomon's ancient harem, those rules are how they've survived for so long. But she needs more than rules right now. Hunters have imprisoned Sumarra. They're torturing her, and Dilara, is the only one with the knowledge and resources to rescue her.

But Dilara has other pressing problems. There's infighting among the clans and it threatens to destroy their sisterhood. Sonya, a sister long thought dead, has returned and some are calling for her punishment and perhaps even her death. The Hunters' continuing attacks threatens them all. Then there's Dilara's own haunting mistake.

In order to save Sumarra and the rest of the sisterhood, she must choose to go against everything she believes, even if it means sacrificing her rank, her integrity, and her own life.
