Dance in the Dark (A Scott Elliott Mystery) Terence Faherty

It's 1969. The Summer of Love is a fading memory, but the Vietnam War rages on. Scott Elliott, veteran operative of Hollywood Security, agrees to find the runaway daughter of a has-been star. Her trail skirts the new and burgeoning business of hard-core pornography and ends at an outdoor rock concert under the control of a savage gang, where Elliott is as at-home as Sam Spade at Woodstock. Still, he'll take any distraction from his own troubles. His son Billy is missing in action and his marriage to the lovely Ella is cracking under the strain.
