Growing Season Mike Gaherty

When a tragic auto accident takes her parents from her, Katie Rourke trades a successful teaching career for the Iowa farm of her childhood. She vows she will save the land that has meant so much to four generations of Rourkes. And when crushing debt threatens her plans, she's ready for drastic measures. Why not farm the land herself? Handsome neighbor David Cairn laughs at the idea - such a petite beauty doesn't have what it takes to be a real farmer. Or does she? After his first dose of her red-haired temper, he's not sure. Irresistibly attracted to each other, the two still find ways to deny their feelings. And now, time may be running out on their love's growing season.
