Kendal Boyd is a sales rep working at one of the largest pharmaceutical companies in the Pacific Northwest. Her father is a dynamic, celebrated politician, one of the world's most respected state representatives. In contrast, Kendal's life is simple and quiet. After being kidnapped by a reporter as a child, she avoids the press at all cost.

Kendal Boyd's tranquil life is turned upside down when a doctor she formerly dated is accused of purchasing and selling unapproved drugs—drugs that only her company manufactures. Naturally, the accusation also points a finger at her. But before the investigation is concluded, a series of brutal murders is committed and Kendal receives a death threat. While FBI is called in, so is Quincy Morgan, an uncover reporter. As the mystery surrounding Kendal deepens, she finds herself drawn to Quincy while becoming embroiled in one of the most bizarre murder mysteries of the century. Rich with tension and heart-stopping action, Small Whispers is laced with mystery, intrigue, romance, and plot twists that Lee's fans have come to know and love.
