La bandida (Spanish Edition) Magdalena González Gámez

Esta novela ofrece un retrato vivo e inmejorable de uno de los personajes populares más enigmáticos del México del siglo XX.

Marina Aedo o Graciela Olmos, huérfana, guerrillera, prostituta, asaltante, adicta, bandida, compositora, cantante; piadosa, caritativa, incondicional; fue la meretriz más influyente y poderosa del México posrevolucionario y es la protagonista de esta historia que cuenta la existencia y las vicisitudes no sólo de una vida, sino del funcionamiento de un México que ya no nos tocó conocer.

Ésta es una recreación surgida de la multitud de versiones contradictorias y misterios, rencores y afectos, que rodean hasta hoy la vida de Graciela Olmos, poseedora de una personalidad con tendencia tanto al delirio psicótico como a la reflexión filosófica certera que la convirtió en uno de los personajes más enigmáticos de nuestra historia.

Sexo, intriga política, violencia, folclore lírico y psicología de género son sólo algunos de los componentes de esta novela, la cual transcurre por varios sitios y épocas de la geografía nacional, desde la Revolución hasta fines de la década de los cincuenta, e incluso llega al Chicago de la Gran Depresión, donde el brutal e inesperado encuentro entre la Bandida y Al Capone nos ofrecerá algunas sorpresas.
