Seventy Gradients Temple Rising James Faber

As Amy Christenson encounters the life after the zombie apocalypse, a new force determines to destroy the world. Something is happening and it interrupts Amy's and Sean's pre-wedding plans. Something mysterious happens and things start to unravel. There are unknown events that present themselves. Once a luxurious Mexican resort, it disappears, and no one knows what happens, but is there anyone in existence? In order to save the world sacrifices must be made, but will Amy make it in time? Encountering new and old friends is a time piece of classical relationships, but there is more than that, and in the end, there is something to find out.
