Los Angeles Tribune investigative reporter Stephanie Kenyon stumbles upon a homeless man with ties to one of the most horrific homicide cases in L.A.'s history, the murder of two prominent movie stars and three of their friends by a band of hippies called "The Family." As Stephanie interviews former Family members and starts planning a "Family Reunion," she realizes that the story could become her greatest byline...if she survives long enough to write it.

The paperback version of Family Reunion, first published in July of 1990, is 287 pages.
