Sueños de trenes (Spanish Edition) Denis Johnson

Sueños de trenes* es una epopeya en miniatura, una de las obras más conmovedoras y evocativas en la ya larga carrera del escritor norteamericano Denis Johnson

Robert Grainer es un jornalero del Oeste americano en los albores del siglo XX, que, tras ser golpeado por una terrible tragedia, lucha por encontrar sentido a su vida en un mundo en constante mutación. La de Grainer es una vida larga, pobre y modesta, y él, un hombre corriente que transita por una época extraordinaria sin apenas lograr otra cosa que un pequeño trozo de tierra, dos caballos y una carreta.

Con su prosa pulida y alejada de cualquier sentimentalismo, esta joya del galardonado autor de Árbol de Humo ha sido comparada con la obra de autores clásicos como Chéjov.

La crítica ha dicho...

«Sentimientos y visiones que quitan el aliento [...]. Un clásico instantáneo.»

Rodrigo Fresán, ABC

«Un universo moral sin mácula, desprovisto de prejuicios, alérgico al melodrama y adicto a la belleza de las cosas.»

Sergi Sánchez, El Periódico

«Su carácter visionario le enseña al lector algo sobre sí mismo que hoy en día no nos enseña nadie más.»

Maite Pairano, Eldiario.es

«Cualquier escritor puede utilizar una prosa sencilla para describir la construcción de una cabaña o la tala de árboles, pero solo los grandes escritores pueden utilizar esa prosa para dar sentido a toda una comunidad.»

The New Yorker

«Una obra maestra.»

New York Times

«Puede que sea lo más poderoso que haya escrito Johnson jamás.»

The New York Times Book Review

«Esta novela breve y sólida es una auténtica joya, y, para los no iniciados, una perfecta introducción a la obra de Johnson.»

Publisher's Weekly

«Sueños de trenes es una perla literaria.»
