Creating Opportunity: - or how to get people to give you what you want Rayhman Jefferies

This book is about success and how you can make it yours; how you can take control of your life, your mind, body and soul, and achieve everything you have ever desired: How you can make your life your own, give and share, turn any limitation into the greatest opportunity, and have the things we all strive for: Happiness, Success, Wealth, Love, Power in our lives and control over the future and our destinies. It is about getting the relationship, controlling your emotions in a way you want, in any part of your life and work; it is about satisfying every part of the whole person that is you. It is about building the life you want, taking control and creating the opportunities you need in your life and exploiting those already there so that you can begin living life again with excitement, on the edge, fulfilled.
