The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government: All Volumes Jefferson Davis

Jefferson Davis was a civil servant in the United States government for much of his life. Davis was elected president of the Confederacy in early 1861 following the Southern states' secession from the Union. Davis was captured by the Union in 1865 and spent a few years in jail before he was released. Davis spent the rest of his life in the South and wrote the extensive memoir The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government. This version of Davis' The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government: All Volumes includes a table of contents.
